

The Baptism of Christ

The Barbour's Play:

24 and 25 June 2023 in Holy Trinity Goodramgate

John the Baptist is annoyed that despite his impassioned preaching and baptising mission, the people carry on sinning as they have always done. Angels appear and tell him that Jesus is coming to be baptised by him. John says that since Jesus is sinless, he doesn't need to be baptised. Jesus says he has to be an example for the people to follow. Despite feeling unworthy, John baptises Jesus. A dove from heaven appears, showing God's approval.

The York Mystery Plays are a cultural treasure of which the city of York is rightly proud. Beyond the magnitude of religion, they represent the values of community and togetherness as they draw on the talents of local people, who gladly give their time to present these iconic plays to the people of Yorkshire and beyond.

An important part of the rich tapestry that make up this historic city, the York Mystery Plays have gained international recognition, with people travelling from far and wide to see them performed in their various incarnations.

About us

YMPST was set up after the 2012 York Mystery Plays in the Museum Gardens in recognition of the community's wish to see the Plays continue and to participate in them. We are a charitable incorporated organisation which exists to advance the education of the public in the medieval Mystery Plays of York and supports all performances of the Plays in York.
